

HEADQUARTERS
3D MARINE DIVISION F.M.F.
IN THE FIELD

*The Commanding General, 3D Marine Division,
Fleet Marine Force, Takes Pleasure in Commending
CORPORAL WESTON D. EASTMAN,
UNITED STATES MARINE CORPS RESERVE,
For Meritorious Service as Set Forth in The Following
CITATION:*

"For meritorious service while serving with a Marine infantry regiment at BOUGAINVILLE, BRITISH SOLOMON ISLANDS, from 6 November, 1943 to 9 January, 1944; at GUAM, MARIANAS ISLANDS, from 21 July, 1944, to 10 August, 1944; and at IWO JIMA, VOLCANO ISLANDS, from 24 February, 1945 to 27 March, 1945. In the first of these three campaigns, Corporal EASTMAN served as a lineman; at GUAM he was an ambulance driver; and at IWO JIMA he served as an ambulance driver. Throughout these periods of repeated action against the enemy, Corporal EASTMAN distinguished himself by his initiative, his unflagging zeal in the face of extreme hardship and danger, his courage and his outstanding devotion to duty. An inspiration to all who served with him, he made a material contribution to the success of these operations. His exemplary conduct was in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service."

G. B. ERSKINE,
Major General, U. S. Marine Corps,
Commanding.

DATED: 26 June, 1945.

CORPORAL WESTON D. EASTMAN,
UNITED STATES MARINE CORPS RESERVE.

"For meritorious service while serving with a Marine infantry regiment at BOUGAINVILLE, BRITISH SOLOMON ISLANDS, from 6 November, 1943 to 9 January, 1944; at GUAM, MARIANAS ISLANDS, from 21 July, 1944, to 10 August, 1944; and at IWO JIMA, VOLCANO ISLANDS, from 24 February, 1945 to 27 March, 1945. In the first of these three campaigns, Corporal EASTMAN served as a lineman; at GUAM he was an ambulance driver; and at IWO JIMA he served as an ambulance driver. Throughout these periods of repeated action against the enemy, Corporal EASTMAN distinguished himself by his initiative, his unflagging zeal in the face of extreme hardship and danger, his courage and his outstanding devotion to duty. An inspiration to all who served with him, he made a material contribution to the success of these operations. His exemplary conduct was in keeping with the highest traditions of the United States Naval Service."

G. B. ERSKINE,
Major General, U. S. Marine Corps,
Commanding.

26 June, 1945.