

IN REPLYING ADDRESS
COMMANDANT OF THE MARINE CORPS
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.
AND REFER TO

SERIAL 420190 HEADQUARTERS U. S. MARINE CORPS
DGU-893-a01 WASHINGTON

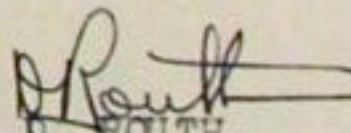

26 June, 1945.

My dear Mrs. Eastman:

Delayed information has just reached this Headquarters that your son, Corporal Weston D. Eastman, USMCR, was wounded in action on 24 February, 1945 at Iwo Jima, Volcano Islands.

It is hoped that he has communicated with you since that time informing you of his welfare. However, should any further reports regarding him be received, you will be informed promptly. Please notify this Headquarters of any change in your address.

Sincerely yours,

D. SOUTH,

Lieut. Colonel, U. S. Marine Corps.

Mrs. Rachel D. Eastman,
20 William Street,
Andover, Massachusetts.
