This certificate must be issued on discharge or relief from active duty to each officer or enlisted man who satisfactorily completes such service. "Satisfactory completion" will normally be accomplished if the individual's service is such that he would be entitled to an honorable discharge if discharged from the service instead of relieved from active duty.

In any case where the immediate commanding officer is aware of facts not in the possession of Headquarters, Marine Corps, at the time the certificate was issued, which raise a doubt in his mind as to the right of the officer to a certificate of satisfactory service, he is authorized to withhold delivery of such certificate, making an appropriate note of the fact in his endorsement on the officer's orders, and return the certificate to the Commandant of the Marine Corps with a full statement of the facts in the case.

In the case of enlisted men an entry will be made in the service-record book under "Other Special Qualifications" that a "certificate of satisfactory service" was issued. If his service is unsatisfactory and no certificate issued, an entry to that effect will be made in the service-record book.
